Subject: A1701012 et al. Email Ruling Granting Motion Regarding Party Status

This Email Ruling addresses three motions regarding party status in Application (A.) 17-01-012 et al., as described below. The motion of Robert Bosch LLC (Bosch) to withdraw as a party is granted. Two motions separately filed by Leapfrog Power, Inc. (Leap) and Sunrun, Inc. (Sunrun) requesting party status in A.17-01-012 et al. are also granted.

Bosch filed a motion, dated December 11, 2018, requesting to withdraw as a party to A.17-01-012 et al. In its motion, Bosch explained that it is terminating its operations at the end of 2018. Bosch also requested that the Commission's Process Office remove Andrew Yip from the Information-Only portion of the service list. These requests are reasonable and should be granted.

Leap filed a motion, dated January 11, 2019, requesting party status in this proceeding. Leap stated that it is a demand response provider for residential, commercial, industrial, and agricultural customers throughout California. Leap explained that its interest in the proceeding is to provide comment on the demand response auction mechanism evaluation report. Leap contends that wholesale market integrated demand response will play a critical role in helping California achieve its zero carbon goals. Sunrun also filed a motion, dated January 11, 2019, requesting party status in this proceeding. Sunrun stated it is the largest dedicated residential rooftop solar company in the United States. Sunrun explained that it is interested in Commission proceedings that will create or influence mechanisms for integrating distributed energy resources, including demand response. Sunrun contends that the demand response auction mechanism pilot provides value to the grid and should be extended with certain changes. The motions of Leap and Sunrun requesting party status in A.17-01-012 et al. comply with Commission Rules of Practice and Procedure, Rule 1.4(b)(1) and (2), and should be granted.

IT IS RULED that:

1. The motion of Robert Bosch LLC for leave to withdraw as a party to Application 17-01-012 et al. is granted. The Process Office is instructed to remove Robert Bosch LLC from party status and to remove Mr. Andrew Yip from the information-only portion of the service list.
2. Leapfrog Power, Inc. is granted party status in Application 17-01-012 et al.
3. Sunrun, Inc. is granted party status in Application 17-01-012 et al.

The Docket Office shall formally file this Email Ruling.
