To All Parties:

On January 14, 2019, four organizations that were not yet parties sought to file responses to the Order Instituting Investigation (OII) in this proceeding. Those organizations – The Utility Reform Network, the Coalition of California Utility Employees, and the Commission’s Office of the Safety Advocate and Public Advocates Office – are now parties. Those four parties may now have their January 14, 2019 responses accepted for filing.

On December 31, 2018, the Public Advocates Office sought to file a response regarding redaction of information; on February 26, 2019, the Coalition of California Utility Employees sought to file an emergency motion also regarding redaction of information. Those pleadings have respectively been superseded by discussion and argument on this issue at the Law and Motion Hearing on February 5, 2019 and at the Pre-Hearing Conference on April 4, 2019, and accordingly will not be accepted for filing.

DOCKET OFFICE SHALL FILE THIS RULING
